CRICKET

LEAGUE MATCHES.

INDIANS DEFEAT THE NAVY.

The Indian Recreation Club deserve every credit for the very meritorious win they scored on Saturday, on their new grounds at Sookunpoo Valley, against a strengthened Navy team. The Navy team included several officers from the Hawkins, but missed Commander Bonham-Carter, the ex-Surrey county cricketer, who was on duty. A feature of the match was the splendid batting of A. H. Rumjahn, who scored the first century in this season's League cricket. In compiling an unbeaten 106 runs, Rumjahn gave two very hard chances when he was in the eighties, otherwise his display was a pattern of steady cricket. No less useful than Rumjahn's success in batting was the service rendered by Earde in the bowling department. He clean bowled five men for 26 runs, obtaining the last wicket—which won the match for his side—on the stroke of time.

Taking first knock on an ideal batsman's wicket, the Indians started none too auspiciously losing Arculli, the stonewaller of the side, when only fifteen runs had been totalled. Earde partnered A. H. Rumjahn and commenced hitting the bowlers all round the field. The total soon reached 63, when Earde (33) was out to a splendid catch at square leg by Cunningham. The next wicket fell with the score at 65 and then a steady partnership between S. A. Ismail and Rumjahn raised the score to 119, when the former was bowled by Lambert. A. A. Rumjahn joined his brother, and the two compiled runs at a fairly fast pace. When the score reached 170, A. H. Rumjahn had obtained his century. When the score stood at 185 runs for the loss of four wickets, the Indians declared. A. H. Rumjahn was at the wicket for over an hour and a half in making his unfinished 106 runs, which included thirteen fours. A. A. Rumjahn carried out his bat for a correctly compiled 25.

The Navy started disastrously, two men being unfortunately run out with the score standing at 3. A partnership between Robinson and Henderson raised the score to 24 for the third wicket when the latter was bowled by Earde. The next wicket fell without any addition to the total. The fifth wicket fell for 42, when Kennett joined Robinson, who adopted offensive tactics and gave a lot of trouble to the bowlers. The total was raised to 88 for the sixth wicket when Robinson, who had scored 53, was caught at the wickets by D. Rumjahn off S. A. Ismail. Robinson hit at everything and gave a robust display of batting. His innings, however, was not without blemish, for he gave more than one chance. Kennett continued to play steadily, giving no chances, but he received no assistance from the tail-end of his side. He carried out his bat for 26, the innings closing for 110 runs. A. A. Rumjahn, who was put in to bowl at the latter end of the match, secured two wickets for four runs. Scores:—

R.G.A. DEFEAT THE C.R.C.

The Chinese team put up a good game against the R.G.A., at Happy Valley, on Saturday. Lieut. Sutherland and Gnr. Middleton were the absentees on the R.G.A. side, while the Chinese fielded their strongest possible team. The match, played on the Military ground, was constantly interrupted by streams of football spectators. The crowd was frequently crossing the field of play and passing in front of the screens. Twice, during the match, play had to be stopped, as the crowd was so dense that it almost took possession of the field. The batsmen, also, had great difficulty in watching the ball.

The Chinese, batting first, opened very slowly, the first six overs yielding only 11 runs. Both Choa and Lo were caught in the slips, at 13 and 20 respectively. The partnership between Yew and Ng considerably improved the position of their side. Neither Bryson nor Davies was bowling his best, owing to being unaccustomed to the matting wicket, on which the ball was kicking. After Ng got out, with the score at 58, only Un of the remaining batsmen was able to do anything at all. Olliver was given the bowling, and his deliveries looked so easy that the batsmen attempted to hit out with the result that four out of the five were taken in the slips. The R.G.A. fielding was much below the usual standard, and several chances went begging.

The R.G.A. batting was, till Davies came in, stodgy. Talfourd was as sound as he always is and stayed in till the score stood at 66 without giving a chance. Four wickets were down for 93 when Davies came in and knocked up the required runs in no time. He proved an adept at stealing short runs, and after the match had been won, hit out at pretty nearly everything. The R.G.A won by six wickets. Scores:—

STAFF DEFEAT THE UNIVERSITY.

The Staff and Departments, playing their first League match against the University on the latter's ground on Saturday, scored a decisive victory by 107 runs.

Batting first, the Staff made a very encouraging start. Coles and Bowen, who were the first to go in, took the score to 111 before Wright got behind Coles' defence. Coles had played very steadily, leaving Bowen to do the hitting. Bowen, whose success in the recent Garrison—Hongkong match was so marked, was in rare smiting form, and his 82 runs were mostly compiled by boundary hits. Humphry was showing good form when he had the misfortune to be caught by Samy off Wright. Connor batted with care, and stayed at the wickets quite a long time. Marley, who opened the bowling with Redmond, sent down a costly 10 overs. Wright had the best average on his side. The Staff tail was not a glaring success, the last three wickets falling with the score remaining at 198.

Connor and Cavenaugh bowled through the University innings unchanged, finishing up with very similar averages. The first wicket fell at 22, and thenceforward the men were dismissed with regularity, except for a brief spell, when Wright and Hunt were associated at the wickets. The last wicket added 23 runs to the score. Scores:—

FRIENDLY MATCHES.

KOWLOON DEFEATS HONGKONG.

There is a tradition that the Kowloon C.C.—Hongkong C.C. matches should always end in favour of the home team. Last Saturday's match, however, ended in a draw, the result being open up to the last minute.

Kowloon batted first, and were able to declare their innings closed when they had scored 189 for the loss of seven wickets. K. R. Macaskill played a very free innings, punishing the bowlers with the greatest confidence. Robinson's 30 runs were steadily compiled, but the best cricket on the side was played by Stapleton. Brand was the only successful bowler on his side.

A fine display by Pearce was a feature of the Club innings. The Club captain was thoroughly at ease with all the bowlers. Brand ably seconded the efforts of the skipper and played good cricket for an unfinished 39. Pestonji was kept on far too long with the bowling, but Stalker bowled very well indeed, capturing five wickets for a fraction over 4 runs apiece. Scores:—

CRAIGENGOWER DEFEAT THE CIVIL SERVICE.

A noteworthy innings by R. Basa helped Craigengower to a victory over the Civil Service. The latter team missed the Hon. C. Severn and F. J. Ling, their absence making all the difference in the bowling.

The Civil Service started steadily, losing six wickets, including those of Wood, Bradbury and Hutchison, before 30 runs had been scored. As Abbas was merely keeping the runs down without taking any wickets, Lammert and Heath took up the bowling, enabling the last three batsmen to add appreciably to the score.

Basa played right through the Craigengower innings without giving more than one possible chance. His drives on the off were much admired. Kennedy hit out enterprisingly, giving more than one catch in the outfield. Craigengower won on the stroke of time by three wickets. Scores:—

HONGKONG C.C. 2ND. XI. DEFEAT KOWLOON C.C. 2ND. XI.

The second team of the Hongkong C.C. got the better of their rivals from Kowloon, on the Hongkong ground. Kowloon declared their innings closed when they had scored 132 for the loss of eight wickets. Edmonds batted very freely, ringing off some hefty shots on both sides of the wicket. The Hongkong C.C. batsmen batted as if they found the bowling easy, Lammert doing the best of the six men who entered double figures. The Club won by two wickets. Scores:—

CIVIL SERVICE 2ND. XI. DEFEAT UNIVERSITY 2ND. XI.

The second team of the University met with defeat at the hands of the Civil Service second string, on Saturday. C. Y. Ng was the only man on his side to stand up to the bowling of Taylor and Sandford. The Civil Service batsmen found the bowling easy. Bearne hit seven boundaries in obtaining 36 runs. Most of the Civil Service runs were made up of boundaries. The Civil Service won by 91 runs. Scores:—

CRAIGENGOWER 2ND. XI. DEFEAT C.R.C. 2ND. XI.

The C.R.C. did not make a good show in this match, which was productive of low scoring. The C.R.C., batting first, lost their first two wickets at 9. When the score stood at 26 for the loss of 3 wickets, things looked better, but this promise did not materialise. Craigengower did not look like winning at first. Three wickets fell for 2 and 5 for 40 when the "tail" came to the rescue. Craigengower won by four wickets. Scores:—

FOOTBALL.

DIVISION I.

HONGKONG F.C., 3; POLICE, 0.

On their play the Hongkong Club deserved to win their match against the Police, and they would have doubled their score but for their erratic shooting. Their opponents put up a hard fight and played a losing game very creditably. The Club tried two new men, Hamilton who recently arrived in the Colony with the reputation of having played for the Celtic Juniors, and Boysen, a local Dutchman. Hamilton's forte being extreme right, Rodger went into the half-back line, displacing MacPhail who had played very sound football against the Navy and the R.G.A. Boysen took Pascoe's place at inside right. This experiment did not prove successful.

The Club assumed the aggressive soon after the kick-off, and the game had not progressed ten minutes when Reichelmann, getting the ball from Hamilton, put in a fast ground shot from a distance of 20 yards. The Police defence stiffened after this set-back and Kelly, MacWalter and Cave came into the limelight for their brawny methods. The Club forward line—Riis, MacTavish, Reichelmann, Boysen and Hamilton—indulged in several "bouts of passing, most of them initiated by the halves, who were feeding their forwards well. The latter were, however, not so accurate as usual, and their passes were more often than not intercepted by the Police halves, whose aggressive tactics seemed to upset the Club forwards. At this stage, Cave, one of the Police backs, tackled Reichelmann, but fell awkwardly, and had to be carried off the field. His arm was said to be broken above the elbow. Mrs. Hissling, who was among the spectators, rendered first aid, and Cave was taken to hospital in the Hon. Mr. Wolfe's motor car. The Club obtained another goal in this half owing to a tactical mistake by the goal-keeper, who ran out during a melee and attempted to fist the ball away. Riis passed the ball to MacTavish who shot high into an open goal. The Club were leading by two goals to nil at the interval.

The chief feature of the second moiety was the number of opportunities of scoring of which the Club forwards failed to take advantage. With a man short in their defence, the Police played desperately, and, adopting a one-back game, got Reichelmann, MacTavish and Riis off side time and again. MacWalter played a great game at back, with invaluable aid from Kelly, and, sometimes, from Grimmett, who left his post as centre-forward and came back to help stop the Club incursions. Boysen missed at least two "sitters," while Reichelmann, MacTavish and Hamilton all shot wide. The Police goal-keeper acquitted himself nobly, particularly when he stopped a stinging shot from Boysen. Quite late in the second half, MacTavish put in a splendid shot from an awkward angle which clean beat the goal-keeper. The story of the game would not be complete without a reference to the strenuous efforts made by the Police forwards to score. Black and McCubbin were kept busy for a while by these attacks of the Police, their two extremes and Grimmett at centre being unsparing in their efforts. Black, however, proved a tower of strength, and Rodger, in goal, had in consequence little to do. Rodger's chance came, however, when he was called upon to save off a free kick. The Club won by 3 goals to nil.

The Club forwards seemed to be somewhat disorganised by the presence of the two new men, who were unaccustomed to the tactics of Reichelmann and MacTavish. J. B. Hamilton is, however, an acquisition to his side; he seemed to know what was wanted and did it in a thorough style. Some of his passes to Reichelmann were placed too far back, but that is a defect which is not irremediable. Boysen proved about as good a man as Pascoe whom he displaced. Perhaps it might be thought advisable to play Rodger inside right and put MacPhail back into the half line. Stewart and Railton had all their work cut out against the muscular style of play affected by the Police. The Police are a fast improving team but their forwards are not yet sufficiently quick on the ball. Kelly, MacWalter, Grimmett, the centre-half, and Clark, the goal-keeper, were the most conspicuous players on their side.

R.G.A., 5; ST. JOSEPH'S, 0.

This First League match which was played on the Military ground on Saturday did not provide half the interest of an average second division match. St. Joseph's College were weak, three of their regular players R. Omar, Abbas and Sepher being absent. Omar was laid up with fever whilst the other two found cricket more attractive. Further, to crown their misfortune, Goldenberg and M. Silva, on whom the team relied, did not turn up. The match started with the Collegians playing ten men, the goal-keeper having to be picked up on the ground. The gaps caused by the absence of the regular players were filled up by members of their second string. As was to be expected, the Collegians could do nothing better than play a defensive game and they succeeded in keeping their goal intact until near the interval, when the soldiers scored a lucky goal. The ball hit the left upright and cutting across the goal lodged itself in the net at the other end. The Collegians broke away on two occasions and both Ogley and J. Silva had bad luck in not scoring. Sandy Urquhart also failed to score from a hard ground kick, the soldiers' left back deflecting it.

St. Joseph's changed their goalkeeper in the second half and reorganized their team. This had the effect of weakening their defence still more and the soldiers had not much difficulty in piling up 4 more goals in quick succession. The Collegians failed to make any impression and the final whistle found them the losers by 5 goals to nil.

ROYAL NAVY, 1; SOUTH ATHLETIC, 1.

The South China Athletic team sprang a surprise on even their most optimistic supporters by the splendid game which they put up against the Navy. The Navy—Cantess League matches have always seem close contests, but this year the sailors are so strong that the defeat of the Chinese on Saturday was regarded by many as a foregone conclusion. The Navy team underwent one or two changes, Goss and Reynolds, of the Alacrity, displacing Radford and Amey at back. The change was justified, for both these players gave a fine exhibition. They could not be blamed for the goal scored, which was the result of an error of judgment on the part of their goalkeeper, Crocker.

A couple of changes were made in the Chinese team, and the forwards, unlike previous displays, showed better combination, improved judgment and adopted an offensive which, at times, surprised both the opposing team and the spectators alike. The weight of the naval men seemed to tell against the Chinese. The game was fast, clean, and well contested, the Chinese backs giving a really magnificent display of defensive football.

From the kick-off, the Navy forwards carried the ball into Chinese territory where it remained for some time. Time after time Graydon, the centre-forward, well-fed by his men, sent the ball to the Chinese citadel only to be met by Lau Hung Cheong in his best form. A melee took place inside the penalty area, and it looked as if the Navy would break through, but the right back of the Chinese managed to clear the ball past the centre and thereby relieve the pressure. After a little give-and-take play on both sides, the Chinese centre-half, by a tricky piece of work, carried the ball to the Navy goal and then passed it on to the right wing who sent in a shot which took Crocker no little trouble to save. The ball was returned to midfield, but the Chinese once more obtained possession and returned to the Navy goal. Leung Tai Fong attempted a long distance shot but it struck the cross-bar. Brilliant bombardment of the Chinese goal followed during the next few minutes of the game. Neal obtained the ball and sent it down to Taliana, who, after a short run, centred it to Graydon. The latter sent in a hot shot from a somewhat difficult angle and the ball bounced back into play. At the interval, no goals had been scored by either side.

On resuming after half-time, the Navy forwards showed spirited form and tried hard to obtain a goal. The Chinese, however, adopted more or less defensive tactics and frustrated many a fine attempt. An incursion by the Navy forced the Chinese to concede a corner, and a good opportunity of scoring was negatived by both Graydon and Neal trying to head the ball at the same time. After some free play, the pressure of the Navy being relaxed through the opposition of the Chinese half-backs, the Navy once again continued to press. Neal, Taliana, Handford and Graydon put in some very tricky work, and the latter sent in a weak shot, which went over the net. The ball then continued to travel from end to end for about ten minutes. About seven minutes before the finish, the Chinese were again to the fore. They carried the ball to the Navy goal, where after an excellent resistance, Ip Kau drew first blood for his side with a long shot. Three minutes later, just before the final whistle went, Neal rushed the ball from midfield and passed it to Graydon who hustled the ball right into goal, enabling the Navy to draw level.

DIVISON II.

KOWLOON, F.C., 12; INDIAN R.C., 0.

Kowloon "walked away" with the Indians on Saturday, on the Navy ground, the first half resolving itself into a monotonous series of incursions by the Kowloon forwards, with two out of every three attacks resulting in a goal. The Indians were handicapped by not having their best team out, while the inclusion of an untried goal-keeper did not improve matters.

The Kowloon forwards, with quick, clean passing, and a perfect understanding of each other's play, repeatedly broke through the Indian defence, and at the end of the first half had scored two short of a dozen goals. In the second half, the Indians changed their custodian, and Kowloon obviously slackened off, being quite content with the goals they had scored. Still, Kowloon had the most of the game, and though Madar, the new Indian goal-keeper, saved numerous shots, they added two more points to their score, and thus emerged winners by 12 goals to nil.

Rasmussen and Taylor scored 4 goals each, Millard two, Knight one and Tatam one. Kowloon is fortunate in having a well-balanced team that will take some beating. Taylor, in the forward line, has improved wonderfully. Nearly all the goals not actually netted by him were put in through his agency. Mitchell, the centre half, and White and Van Langenberg, his supports, make up such a good first line of defence that Jackson and Wheeler are not often called upon to clear. For the Indians, Hyder, Rahiman, Salim, Harteam and the Rumjahns did their best.

HONGKONG F.C. (R.), 3; UNITED F.C., 1.

The Hongkong F.C. Reserves having entered the League in place of the R.G.A. Reserves, who were forced to withdraw owing to their inability to get up a team, played their first match on Saturday, scoring a victory against the United F.C. by 3 goals to 1. The Club team obviously needs a good deal of practice; they certainly have fairly good material. The United missed Simmons, their captain, who is in Hospital with sprue, and it is not likely that he will play any more football.

The United deserve credit for the stubborn defence they put up. Their only goal was scored in the first half. Miller, the centre forward, put in a fine shot from close quarters. In the second half, the superior weight of the Club team told its tale, and their forwards were able to do as they pleased. Mackenzie, Zeveryn and Pilger were responsible for the three goals scored, in each case the ball being served out to them by Gerrard, who played a sound game at centre forward.

Mason, Blake and Marshall were easily the pick of the United defence, while the goal-keeper, McLeod, saved several fine shots. Miller and Brown were the most hardworking of the United forwards.

SOUTH CHINA "B," 1; MANCHESTER REGIMENT, 1.

All expectations of the Chinese winning this match were falsified and they could do nothing better than to make it a draw. Indeed, at one stage of the game they looked like losing. The soldiers took the offensive from the start but a well organized attack by them was thrown away by their centre forward when he had the chance of scoring. The Chinese responded with a determined attack but found themselves helpless at close range as the soldiers formed a solid phalanx in front of their goal whenever it was threatened. The Chinese resorted to long shots but without avail. Then came a surprise. The soldiers' left back had relieved the pressure by returning a hard drive to midfield when the Chinese centre sent in a high kick which all were convinced would go over the cross bar. It suddenly dropped, however, and before the soldiers' custodian was aware of it, the ball had found the net.

In the second half, the Chinese again tried more long shots and high kicks but failed to add to their score. The soldiers rallied and took the offensive vigorously. They scored a fine goal, following up a few minutes later with another. The second time, however, a verdict of off side by the referee, a decision which was very unfavourably received, robbed them of a win. The score stood at one all when the final whistle sounded a few minutes later.

KOWLOON BOWLING GREEN CLUB.

SUCCESSFUL "AT HOME."

One of the most enjoyable social functions with local sporting clubs held for some time took place on Saturday afternoon, when the Kowloon Green Club held its annual "At Home." There was a large attendance of members and their friends. The Club ground was prettily decorated with flags and every arrangement for the comfort of the guests was made, including a string band which rendered a very acceptable programme of music. All six greens were kept busy throughout the afternoon, but, naturally, much interest centred round the Championship game which was very keenly contested and finally resulted in Mr. S. Gray securing premier honours, with Mr. R. Hall a good second.

At the conclusion of the games, the President of the Club, Mr. J. Chapman, in calling upon Mrs. Muir to distribute the prizes, said he thought that the Club had been very fortunate in being favoured with fine weather and also with the company of so many friends. He was sure that the members of the Club fully appreciated such a good attendance and, on behalf of the members and the Committee, he tendered hearty thanks to the visitors for their presence and for the assistance they had given in making the "At Home" a success. The Bowling competitions had proved very interesting this year. That afternoon, Mr. Hall was the winner of "the Non-Prize Winners," event and he also figured in the Championship. One of the competitions had not been finished, namely, the "Hind Cup," presented for the competition of "England" versus "Scotland." That would be finished later on. Mrs. Muir had very graciously consented to distribute the prizes. (Applause.)

At the conclusion of the distribution of prizes, Mr. D. Keith said it fell to him that afternoon, on behalf of the gentlemen of the Club, to thank the ladies for their attendance. The members would all agree with him when he said that they could come to the Club feeling sure that the ladies would do their bit and they had done their bit very well that day. (Applause.) He had been asked to announce that the ladies who had arranged the "tea" were to be presented with spoons. (Applause.)

Mr. D. Muir, replying on behalf of Mrs. Muir, thanked Mr. Chapman for his kind remarks. It had been a most successful afternoon and it had been thoroughly enjoyed by all. According to some of the local papers, it had been stated that the K.B.C. might pass into other hands. He thought that very improbable indeed. (Applause.) Thanks were due to Mr. Cooper, the hon. secretary, who had worked very hard and had rendered able assistance. Another gentlemen to whom thanks were due was Mr. R. M. Dyer. They appreciated very much his gifts and what he had done for the Club and also in having him as a member. Everybody in the colony admitted that Mr. Dyer was one of the best sports in Hongkong. (Applause.)

Mr. R. M. Dyer, on being called upon for a speech, said he did not know exactly what they wanted him to talk about. They had had a very pleasant afternoon indeed. He thought that the Kowloon B.C. was one of the nicest little institutions in the Colony and he hoped it would long continue as such.

Miss Mary Davidson then presented Mrs. Muir with a bouquet.

The following were the results in the competitions:—

CHAMPIONSHIP. 1, Mr. S. Gray; 2, Mr. R. Hall.

PRESIDENT'S PRIZE. 1, Mr. W. Hedley; 2, Mr. C. Atkinson.

VICE-PRESIDENT'S PRIZE.—1, Mr. W. Johnson; 2, Mr. L. Guy.

THE BORNEO CUP.—1, Mr. D. Keith; 2, Mr. G. L. Edwards.

NON-PRIZE WINNER'S PRIZE.—Mr. J. M. Smyth and Mr. R. Hall.

RINK COMPETITION.—Not finished. Players left in are Messrs. Gray, McKay, Harvey and May.

Spoons were also presented to the winners of all other rink games.

UNIVERSITY HALLS CONCERT.

The seventh annual concert of the University Halls was held in the Great Hall of the University on Friday evening.

The programme opened with an overture by Messrs. S. H. To, F. Prata and Y. C. Teh. Mr. N. Teesdale Mackintosh recited "A Vulgar Boy" and Mr. James Lee held the audience with an admirable rendering of "Fagin in Prison." Messrs. Y. C. Teh and F. Prata played a violin duet which was much appreciated. Miss Rose Wong contributed a piano solo, which was played in a masterly manner. Messrs. Sung Zun-yoen, Zia I-ing, Zungs Foh-yuen and Pao Te-cheng composed the Shanghai Instrumental Quartette which played a piece on Chinese instruments. The Hon. Mr. Claud Severn gave a magnificent reproduction of a light opera selection, imitating a cornet and a harp accompaniment. Mrs. V. Chan sang "Love" and responded to the encore with a duet with Mr. Y. C. Teh, singing "Till we Meet Again." Miss I. Quoy gave "Rackety Coo," and "Friend o'Mine." Mr. Harry Hong-sling sang "Varsity Days," a song of his own composition based on the tune of "Bachelor Days." Mr. William Hall sang "La Paloma" in Italian. Mr. Shih Wei-hun sang a mandarin song and Mr. Tsang King-ham a Cantonese song, both of which were good.

Last on the programme was a short original sketch entitled "Bulled," and described as a one act absurdity. The cast included Mr. Mustapa B. Osman as Dr. Jack Bull, Mrs. V. Chan as Mrs. Mary Bull, Mr. Lim Eng-hae as Mr. Jimmy Onions, Mr. Yeow Tuck-onn, Mr. Chow Cheng-lum and Mr. Oon Khye-hong as patients, and Mr. Cheah Toon-lok as "Hong Heng" a servant. The absurd appearance and witty remarks of the actors continued to hold the audience in laughter throughout the acting.

The Concert Committee consisted of Mr. T. S. James King, Chairman; Mr. Harry Hong-sling, Honorary Secretary, and Messrs. Cheam Kim-cheang, Kung Shien, Mustapa B. Osman, Shih Wei-hua, Tsang King-ham, Wong Ping-kwan, Yeoh Hon-eo and Wong Yik-cho. Mr. Wong Ping-kwan was responsible for the decorations.

An enjoyable evening came to a close with a few remarks from Dr. G. P. Jordan, Pro-Vice-Chancellor, thanking the Committee, and with the playing of the National Anthem.

TEMPTING CHICKEN BAIT.

The partiality of a Chinese for chicken led to his being sentenced to one month's hard labour.

The accused was charged at the Magistracy on Saturday with stealing the chicken, but told the Magistrate that he thought the chicken to be a stray one.

Inspector Kent stated that defendant saw the chicken straying in Irwin Street and enticed it by throwing rice on the ground. While the chicken was picking up the grains of rice, defendant caught it and ran away. He was arrested by the owner. Witness added that the man was probably a professional chicken thief, as evidenced by the fact that he carried rice with him to snare the fowls.

IN AID OF OUR SAILORS.

SPECIAL SERVICE AT ST. JOHN'S CATHEDRAL.

A special service was held at St. John's Cathedral, yesterday morning, when a collection which amounted to $113.08 was taken on behalf of the Seamen's Institute. The Institute is in need of $20,000 which is required for purchasing necessary requisites.

The Rev. G. T. Waldegrave, the Secretary of the Institute, conducted the service which was well attended. In the course of his sermon, the preacher said that our Lord had chosen His disciples for certain characteristics. Included among the number were four who were seamen. The characteristics of those four disciples were the characteristics of the seamen to-day. The predominant characteristics were faith, which carried on in spite of all, for seamen were firm believers in God; hope, which never died, and love and friendship of man for man, devotion to his home and kindly sympathy for all. The seamen were considered to have occupied in the past a lowly place in the social scale but things had altered and it was the duty of all to see that they now had their proper place among men. The seamen in the Colony were longing to go to places where they would be welcome when off duty and they looked for friendship ashore. Everybody in the Colony ought to do his or her best to make these men happy and contented in the strange land they were in. He hoped everyone would try to help the seamen.

The preacher then spoke of the needs of the Institute. The aim of the organisation was the spiritual and physical welfare of seafarers at home and abroad, ashore and afloat. The Institutes tried to help the seamen by holding services, Bible readings, etc. The public could help by giving a special donation now and then and by becoming annual subscribers, by sending magazines, and light literature for distribution among the ships, by organising concert parties to perform at the Institute, and lastly and above all, by praying regularly for all seamen and especially for the work among them in this port.

LONDON OFFICE: 131, FLEET STREET, E.C.

The Daily Press.

HONGKONG NOVEMBER 24TH, 1919.

A WINNING CAUSE.

WE hope that before long the Committee of the Constitutional Reform Association will carry out their intention of asking H.E. THE GOVERNOR to receive a deputation on the subject of the resolutions passed by the public meeting in the Theatre Royal, last January, and submitted to the Secretary of State. The Hon. Mr. H. E. POLLOCK, K.C., the Chairman of the Association, is likely to be released from his official duties very shortly and, although Mr. P. H. HOLYOAK is not expected back in the Colony until some time in March, there are others well able to discuss the pros and cons of the question. It may be objected that HIS EXCELLENCY has only been in the Colony a couple of months, but that is more than double the time which the new Governor of the East Africa Protectorate, Major-General Sir EDWARD NORTHEY, required in order to accept the principle of unofficial representation in the Executive Council and of popular election for the unofficial European members of the Legislative Council. If Sir REGINALD STUBBS had remained in the Colonial Office, it is probable that he would not have had any hesitation in making a recommendation to the Secretary of State on the matter at issue without coming here at all. As it is, we may take it for granted that he has already heard the case for the opposition in detail—from Sir HENRY MAY, if from nobody else, during their conversations at Home—and it is advisable always to administer the antidote as soon after the poison as possible. Moreover, in view of the uncertainty of the political situation in Great Britain, it would be prudent to profit by the present temper of the Colonial Office. A few weeks back we learned that Lord MILNER had sympathetically received a deputation from Ceylon asking for a substantial unofficial majority on the Legislative Council elected on a wide franchise, and had replied that the GOVERNOR would shortly arrive in England to consult him on the subject. In our cable columns to-day it is reported that Col. AMERY, Under Secretary of State for the Colonies, announced in the House of Commons, last Wednesday, that it had been decided to entrust the people of Malta with "full responsible control of purely local affairs" as from the beginning of 1921. This is peculiarly interesting to us in this Colony because Hongkong, like Malta, is an important naval and military station, and amongst other feeble objections this fact has been cited. Even if the full demands submitted were granted, there would never be any real danger that Imperial policy would be defected, for there would be an unofficial majority of one only, and the Royal veto would be retained. In Malta, however, the control of all the services and functions of the Government, in so far as the Colony's position as an Imperial fortress is concerned, will remain vested in the Imperial authorities, and it it be considered necessary, a similar precaution can be taken here. In view of the grant of self-government to Malta, which has a population of only a quarter of a million, it is impossible to imagine any grounds upon which substantial concessions can be withheld from Hongkong. In the decision which they have reached, the British Government have shown a very liberal and enlightened attitude. Their previous experience of an unofficial majority in Malta might well have caused them to hesitate to repeat the experiment, for the Legislature refused to vote supplies and a deadlock resulted, to remove which the Imperial authorities were obliged in 1903 to withdraw the STRICKLAND-MIZZI Constitution of 1887 and re-establish bureaucratic government with an official majority. After this, the representatives of the people were repeatedly re-elected only to resign again and again as a protest against a restricted Constitution. If Hongkong had shown similar determination, its aspirations would have been realised long ago.

One case (one death) of enteric fever was reported in the Colony on Friday.

The construction of a 100-foot road between Kowloon City and the Railway embankment will be commenced shortly.

The name of the Siemens China Electrical Engineering Company (Hongkong), Ltd., has been struck off the Register.

An illustrated lecture entitled "Our Nearest Neighbour in Space" will be given at the Helena May Institute on December 1st., at 8 p.m., by Rev. J. Kirk Maconachie.

H.M. the King has not been advised to exercise his power of disallowance with respect to Ordinance No. 13 of 1919, relating to the more effectual protection of marine stores.

The following additional firms have been granted licences to trade under the non-Ferrous Metal Industry Ordinance, 1919:—Gilman & Co., Ltd., Shum Lee, Shewan, Tomes & Co., Shin Tai Hong, Tai Chan, John D. Hutchison & Co., Chu Kyoku Trading Co., Furukawa & Co., Ltd., Food Shuk Woo.

The death occurred on Friday night of Mr. Look Tin Eli, President of the China Mail Steamship Co., and of the Canton Bank, San Francisco, at the age of 48 years. The deceased was a Chinese American citizen and was general manager of the company about a year ago. He leaves behind a widow and a son. The ships in harbour, belonging to the Company, flew their flags at half mast. The funeral took place at noon yesterday and was followed by a large concourse of people. The cortège was led by the band of the Hawkins, lent for the occasion.

An election by the Justices of the Peace of a Justice of the Peace to serve on the Licensing Board for three years, vice Mr. A. Shelton Hooper, resigned, will take place in the Office of the Registrar of the Supreme Court on Monday, December 1st, 1919, commencing at 1 p.m. The ballot box will be closed at 3.30 p.m.

The closing function of the Union Church Jubilee celebrations will be held this (Monday) evening at 8.45. It takes the form of a social reunion, with short speeches, music and refreshments. The Rev. Dr. Boudfield, former minister of the Church, will take part, also the Bishop of Victoria, the Revs. Dr. Pearce, C. A. Grimblett, H. Copley Moyle, and Dr. F. M. Wan. All past and present friends are invited.

A local bank is believed to have been victimized to the extent of G.$2,000 during the last few days. It appears that a consignment of American dollars were sent by steamer to Hongkong, where the cargo was discharged and placed in the bank's Godowns. On Friday afternoon, when the consignees of the cargo went to take delivery and the boxes were opened, it was discovered that one of the boxes had been tampered with, either in transit or at the Godowns, and scrap-iron substituted for the dollars. The local Police, when asked, were unable to make any statement.

H.E. the Governor gave a dinner party at Government House on Friday night at which were present: Commander R. E. McCowen, D.S.O., R.N., H.M.S. Alacrity; Surg.-Lieut.-Commander F. H. Holl, R.N., H.M.S. Alacrity; Mr. T. D. Moorhead, Mrs. Moorhead, Miss Moorhead, Miss Wood, Mr. R. O. Hutchison, M.B.E., Mrs. Hutchison, Major C. H. M. Sturges, D.S.O., Major F. J. NO BLOCKADE OF RUSSIAN PORTS.

LONDON, November 20th.

In the House of Commons, at question-time, Mr. Lloyd George emphasised that the maritime policy in the Baltic was the policy of the Allies, not of Britain alone. Strictly speaking, there had been no blockade of Russian ports. We had been helping the Baltic Provinces in their struggle against Bolshevism. The Government question was now solved by the ice. It was not proposed that the British Fleet should patrol the Baltic in spring.

GERMANY.

PAN-GERMAN DEMONSTRATIONS IN BERLIN.

BERLIN, November 19th.

In view of the first appearance of General von Hindenburg and General von Ludendorff before the War Enquiry Commission, extraordinary precautions were taken to restrain demonstrations in their honour. The Police formed a cordon round the Reichstag. The car conveying them was strongly escorted by troops. The crowd broke the cordon and gave the Generals an ovation, but there were no disorders.

Hindenburg, testifying, declared that nobody in Germany had wanted the war. Therefore, the Army's task had been to end the war as quickly as possible. The Army had been very splendid, but the lack of co-operation in the homeland prevented victory.

The chairman frequently interrupted, asking Hindenburg to refrain from expressing opinions.

Hindenburg, proceeding, emphasised that Ludendorff and himself constantly worked together in the most harmonious manner.

Answering the Committee's first question, Hindenburg declared that unrestricted submarinism had been imperative.

IMPERIAL UNITY.

COLONEL AMERY'S VIEWS.

LONDON, November 20th.

Colonel L. C. S. Amery, Parliamentary Under Secretary for the Colonies, addressing a Colonial missionary meeting at Bradford, said that it might be argued that having established a League of Nations, concentrated efforts upon imperial unity might become unnecessary and might even be harmful.

He entirely disagreed with this view. He said that the more we developed principles of unity and co-operation within the Empire, the more we would be able to help the League effectively to deal with our problems. Henceforth we must look ahead with wider vision.

UNEMPLOYMENT AT HOME

SUPPLEMENTARY ESTIMATE BEFORE THE COMMONS.

LONDON, November 19th.

In the House of Commons, Sir R. S. Horne, moving a supplementary estimate of £1,500,000 for unemployment donation, stated that 479,000 persons were at present receiving the dopation, including 344,000 ex-service men and 34,000 civilians.

Since the Armistice, employment had been found for 3,000,000 ex-service men and 1,500,000 munition workers.

Unemployment at present was only one half the average for the 15 years previous to the war.

There had been a certain amount of deceit, voluntary idleness and fastidiousness in regard to employment, which ought to be affected by the abolition of the donation to civilians.

CIVILIAN DONATION TO BE DISCONTINUED.

LONDON, November 20th.

In the House of Commons, the discontinuance of the civilian unemployment donation was lengthily debated. Coalitionists as well as Labourites strongly appealing to the Government to reconsider its decision. Mr. Bonar Law left the question to the free decision of the House, which rejected the motion to continue the dole by 217 votes to 123.

IRON-MOULDERS' STRIKE.

NEGOTIATIONS FOR A SETTLEMENT RE-OPENING.

LONDON, November 19th.

In the House of Commons, at question-time, Mr. G. J. Wardle stated that 45,000 iron-moulders were still striking. He estimated that 75,000 were thereby rendered idle.

It is understood that negotiations towards a settlement of this dispute are being re-opened.

It is noteworthy that Sir Auckland Geddes, last night, described the above strike as a most devastating and ghastly misfortune for the whole body employed.

INDIAN FRONTIER OPERATIONS.

AEROPLANES BOMB MAHSUD STRONGHOLDS.

LONDON, November 19th.

Active operations have begun on the Indian Frontier against the recalcitrant Mahsuds, who have, recently, been most troublesome.

Following the rejection of the British demands, a squadron of twenty-five aeroplanes intensively bombed the Mahsud centre, Kaniguram, which was until recently a British post, and other villages. The operation continued daily. All the aeroplanes returned, despite a heavy anti-aircraft fire.

The Ameer has repudiated the Afghans who have taken up positions at Wana in the British tribal territory.

The first general agreement ever made between Occidental and Oriental representatives regarding labour standards has been reached by the Committee of the Washington Labour Conference which submitted to the Conference a draft Convention providing that children under fourteen may not be employed in any industries. Japan agreed with three modifications; firstly, exempting children over twelve who have finished their elementary education; secondly, providing that children of between 12 and 14 years of age who have been employed may be submitted to the transitional regulations; and thirdly, repealing the law admitting children under 12 to certain easy work.

Regarding India, in view of the probable introduction of a new educational system, it has been decided that the question may be fully examined with a view to submitting a report to the next Conference.

AMERICAN COAL MINERS.

NO INTENTION TO RESUME WORK JUST YET.

LONDON, November 20th.

The Times' correspondent at Washington states that, notwithstanding expectations, it is now recognised that the coal miners in most centres will remain out. They do not intend to resume until the employers and workers' conference at Washington, which is proceeding bitterly, has produced the desired results.

AN OAKLEAF EMBLEM.

THE PRINCE OF WALES.

A WONDERFUL RECEPTION IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, November 18th.

The Prince of Wales arrived here shortly after eleven o'clock this morning and was accorded a very enthusiastic reception.

As the Prince of Wales's launch approached the shore, the destroyers in the harbour fired a salute of 21 guns.

Simultaneously, aerial bombs exploded, releasing coloured parachutes from which British and American flags were suspended. This display, in the brilliant sunshine, gave extraordinary colour to the scene.

The vast and well-ordered crowds received the Prince with every circumstance of friendly consideration. There was constant loud cheering.

The air was thick with confetti and coloured paper streamers thrown from the windows.

The people in the streets during the procession stood bare-headed at attention at the numerous halting-places where the British National Anthem was played. Hundreds of little Union Jacks were waved as the Prince's car passed.

The Prince rose, and remained standing up, saluting right and left until the City Hall was reached.

The speakers at the ceremony, when the Freedom of the City was conferred on him, greeted the Prince as the warrior representative of the nation which was devoted to the same high purposes as the United States.

SOLE PRE-OCCUPATION OF NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, November 20th.

The visit of the Prince of Wales continues to be the sole pre-occupation of New York. The Prince is very popular; wherever he goes he receives an uproarious welcome from enormous crowds. He has a daily "heavy programme of sight-seeing" marked everywhere by spontaneous demonstrations.

ELECTIONS IN FRANCE

SIGNIFICANCE OF SOCIALIST ROUT.

LONDON, November 18th.

The Bolshevist issue made the elections in France momentous, far more than electoral reforms. It inaugurated a result which was significant not merely for France but for the world, which is bound to be influenced by France's resolve thus expressed to maintain internal peace and unity. In view of carrying out the work of national reconstruction, the result may be summed up as a notable triumph for the bloc or Coalition representing M. Clemenceau's policy. It was essentially a moderate man's victory, for if the Socialists, especially the Bolshevist section, have been routed, the Royalists fared equally badly.

The next French Parliament will probably be the most Conservative since 1871 for most of the Republicans elected have a distinct tendency to the Right.

The Radical-Socialist Party, of which M. Caillaux was the leader, has virtually disappeared. Its present leader, M. Reserount, has been defeated. What adds to the irony of the Socialist rout is the fact that Royal Socialists who were excluded from the party for voting for military credits during the war, have been returned.

M. Clemenceau, on learning the results jocularly remarked, "How dull the Chamber will be without an Opposition." This indeed is the text of a lugubrious article in the Socialist organ, Lanterne, which has recently re-appeared in Paris. After attributing the Socialist defeat to the ascendency of Bolshevists in the Party councils, it dwells on the danger of an insignificant Socialist minority in Parliament, because the Socialists in the country will be compelled to demonstrate their strength in social upheavals.

Besides M. Longuet, the prominent Socialists defeated are M. Brizon, the fiercest Bolshevist in the Chamber, and M. Renaudel, the Editor of Humanite.

The notorious Captain Sadoul, whom a Court Martial had just condemned to death for activities in Russia where he was a Bolshevist Commissary, failed to secure a return in Paris, although three Bolshevists of his list were elected.

A curious exception in the Socialist rout is the fact that Socialists scored in the devastated zone, especially in Lille, which is practically solid pro-Socialist.

The notables elected include the ex-Ministers, M. Klotz, M. Georges Leygues, M. Nail, M. Tardieu-Cels, M. Ignace, M. Loucheur, M. Abrami, M. Favre, M. Briand, M. Viviani Tardieu, M. Viviani, M. Louis Barthou, (all the last-mentioned three being ex-Premiers), M. Millerand, M. Painleve, M. Albert Thomas, M. Puech, also M. Sarraut, Governor of Indo-China. The notables defeated are the ex-Ministers, Messrs. Clementel, Colliard, Laferre, Morel, Messimy and also M. Franklin Bouillon, who was one of M. Clemenceau's most persistent critics, and General Sarrail.

A number of airmen have been returned, including the famous Captain Fonck. Nearly three hundred of those elected are entirely new men. One explanation of the Socialist defeat is that in the new method of election by large constituencies with voting for party lists instead of individuals, and with proportional representation between the lists, unless any one list obtains a clear majority, this method favours the consolidation of parties and reduces their number. Hence, most parties intermediate between the Right and Extreme Left formed a single Republican Bloc, and the Socialists and Radicals were excluded from it and suffered seriously.

LEFT REPUBLICAN GAINS.

PARIS, November 18th.

At midnight, 548 returns were available. Of those elected, the Left Republicans numbered 117, gaining 51 and losing 17 seats; the Radicals numbered 52, gaining 9 and losing 26 seats; the Radical Socialists numbered 71, gaining 9 and losing 85 seats; the Republican Socialists numbered 24, gaining 7 and losing 15 seats; the Unified Socialists numbered 54, gaining 7 and losing 30 seats; the Dissident Socialists numbered 6, gaining 6 seats; the Progressive Republicans numbered 120, gaining 78 and losing 5 seats; the Liberal Action Party numbered 73, gaining 29 and losing 6 seats; the Conservatives numbered 31, gaining 12 and losing 12 seats.

MOVEMENT TOWARDS THE RIGHT.

Of the 548 elected members, 327 are new men. This is an outstanding feature of the elections, for it signifies not merely a transfer of seats from the Republican parties to the Right but a movement towards the Right inside the Republican parties themselves.

THE BELGIAN ELECTIONS.

SOCIALIST MAJORITY INDICATED.

LONDON, November 18th.

The elections in Belgium are the quietest on record and the Socialists have been most successful.

It is forecasted that the new Chamber will consist of 79 Catholics, 38 Liberals and 65 Socialists.

SOCIALIST GAINS.

BRUSSELS, November 19th.

The Socialists have gained 30 seats. The Catholics have lost 26 and the Liberals 11.

It is expected that a Coalition Government will be formed.

THE NEW CHAMBER.

BRUSSELS, November 20th.

The new Chamber will consist of 73 Catholics, 66 Socialists, 34 Liberals and 9 Independents. All the Ministers have been re-elected.

THE ITALIAN ELECTIONS.

GENERAL APATHY OF THE PEOPLE.

LONDON, November 18th.

A feature of the Italian elections is the general apathy of the people, possibly due to the severe measures which the authorities have taken to prevent disorders. The results are still unknown, though it is expected that the Socialists will gain twenty seats.

THE FINAL FIGURES.

ROME, November 19th.

Those elected consist of 350 Constitutionalists, including 260 Liberals and Democrats, 90 of the Popular Party, 30 of the Left Concentration and 120 Socialists.

Signor Nitti, Signor Orlando, Count Salandra, Signor Bissolati, Signor Giolitti, Signor Luzzatti and Signor Bonelli have been returned.

DISTURBANCES IN MILAN.

MILAN, November 19th.

There was a procession here, to-day, of Socialists and revolutionaries, who are rejoicing at the first Socialist victories.

A bomb burst in the Cathedral square, injuring three badly. The demonstrators then marched to the offices of the Ex-Soldiers' Association. The troops fired, wounding 25 persons.

The Executive of the Labour Exchange have passed a resolution ordering a general strike. They demand the disbandment of the Arditi Battalion whom they accuse of the bomb-throwing.

PEACE TREATY IN AMERICAN SENATE.

PRESIDENT WILL "POCKET" THE TREATY.

WASHINGTON, November 18th.

The President has informed Senator Hitchcock that he will "pocket" the Peace Treaty if Senator Lodge's reservations, which amount, in his opinion, to the nullification of the Treaty, are inserted.

Meanwhile, it is hoped to defeat the ratification resolution embodying Senator Lodge's reservations, upon which a resolution favouring ratification without reservations will be offered.

In the event of the deadlock enduring, a compromise will be sought.

THE REJECTED RESERVATIONS.

WASHINGTON, November 18th.

The Senate has rejected a reservation declaring that the United States declines interest in responsibility for the German overseas possessions, also a reservation providing that questions which the United States considers affecting its honour shall not be subjected to the jurisdiction of the League of Nations, and a resolution proposed by Senator Robert Owen withholding American assent to Britain's protectorate over Egypt.

THE BRITISH EMPIRE'S FIVE VOTES.

WASHINGTON, November 19th.

The Senate has adopted, by 55 votes to 38, a reservation declaring that the United States will not be bound by any decision of the League of Nations in which any member and parts of its Empire cast more than one vote, nor any decision affecting a dispute between the United States and a member of the League, if the latter or part of its Empire has voted.

A number of other reservations have been defeated, including one by which the United States will become only a consulting member of the League, also one adhering to the policy of non-interference in foreign affairs.

SENATE TO RECONSIDER THE TREATY.

WASHINGTON, November 20th.

The Senate, by 58 votes to 39, defeated Senator Lodge's resolution in favour of ratification of the Peace Treaty with the reservations previously adopted. As the two-thirds majority was lacking, Senate Reed moved a "Re-consider Motion." This was carried by 62 votes to 30.

DECLARING PEACE BY A RESOLUTION.

WASHINGTON, November 20th.

In the Senate, on reconsideration, Senator Lodge's motion was re-defeated by 51 votes to 41.

A motion for unconditional ratification of the Treaty was then negatived by 53 votes to 39.

Senator Lodge thereupon stated that the Treaty was no longer before the Senate, and proceeded to submit a motion declaring the war with Germany ended. The motion was referred to the Foreign Relations Committee, the Senate adjourning.

The Republicans believe that the Senate will again deal with the Treaty during the December session, passing it with certain changes, notably in the Preamble.

THE GOVERNMENT'S LEGAL DIFFICULTIES.

WASHINGTON, November 20th.

The fate of the Peace Treaty is again in President Wilson's hands. So far as America is concerned the position is the same as it was six months ago, and reconsideration is unlikely to begin before January.

Meanwhile, the State Department declares that Consuls cannot be sent to Germany, and it is expected that this will seriously affect American trade.

The Republicans, however, assert that full commercial and diplomatic intercourse can be resumed as soon as the procès verbal have been exchanged.

Anyhow, the Government is now faced with several difficult legal problems, including property rights, German ships, and seized enemy alien property.

The Legal Advisers declare that the retention of such properties requires ratification of the Treaty. Hence, on these grounds, the Government is expected to oppose the Republican plan to declare peace by a resolution.

STORMY SCENES IN THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, November 20th.

The Senate's vote cleared the way for the consideration of a compromise proposal acceptable to the majority of the Democrats and the mild reservation group of Republicans. The motion to adjourn the debate was lost.

Upon this, Senator Hitchcock wished to submit a resolution proposing unreserved ratification, but he met with considerable opposition. The Chair repeatedly ruled him in order, but the Senate, by vote, as often over-ruled the Chair.

Finally, the Democrats indignantly complained that the rules of the Senate were being over-ridden. Senate Elihu Root, on behalf of the Republicans, denied, saying that the minority were still to able present compromise reservations seriatim.

A motion by Senator Hitchcock to recommit the Treaty to a Committee of the whole Senate was defeated.

A motion by Senator Pomerene for the appointment of a Conciliation Committee was shelved.

NEW YORK PRESS OPINIONS.

NEW YORK, November 20th.

Most of the newspapers express the hope that an agreement as regards ratification will be reached.

The Conservative Republican Tribune declares that America desires to ratify the Treaty and to join the League of Nations in a way, however, that she will have liberty of national action. It pleads for moderation.

The Times considers that the action of the Senate is leading the country into a shameful position. It predicts ultimate ratification and the joining of the League.

The World, which is pro-Wilson, expresses the opinion that an agreement is still possible, but if ratification cannot be obtained, then the Senate will become a menace to the welfare of mankind and the United States will stand discredited.

The Herald blames President Wilson for the impasse.

EARLIER CABLES.

SOME FRENCH OPINIONS.

PARIS, November 18th.

French Conference circles and the public are exercised over the political battle at Washington. The view is generally held, despite regrets expressed at the possibility of the United States not ratifying the Treaty, that France has already conceded enough to meet the American view-point.

Furthermore, it is believed that the signatures of the American plenipotentiaries bind the Congress.

The present reservations are considered too insulting for submission to the Paris Conference. Hence no surprise is expressed at President Wilson's reported intention to withdraw from the Treaty.

CAN SENATE DECISION BE IGNORED?

LONDON, November 18th.

Respecting the political situation in America, it is authoritatively stated that, except for the technical deposit of ratifications, the Peace Treaty with Germany is an accomplished fact, and there cannot be any question of altering it.

The Allies will consider whether any delay in giving effect to the League of Nations is necessary or whether they will proceed with the Treaty and the League of Nations irrespective of the vote of the American Senate and the final decision of the United States Government.

THE DARDANELLES REPORT.

THE RESULT OF ANTICIPATING VICTORY.

LONDON, November 18th.

In the Dardanelles Report, the Commissioners find that the suffering of the sick and wounded in the original landing was chiefly ascribable to the fact that all arrangements were made on the assumption that the attack would be successful, consequently that it would be possible to establish hospitals ashore. Sir Thomas MacKenzie, High Commissioner of New Zealand, who was one of the Commissioners, supplementarily urges a body of military experts to further investigate the admissions of the witnesses that much life was frittered away through repeated frontal attacks, owing to the alleged absence of adequate artillery preparation

LONDON, November 19th.

In the House of Commons, Sir Auckland Geddes introduced the Imports and Exports Regulation Bill which proposes to constitute a Committee to regulate the importation of food, with a view to preventing dumping, and safeguarding key industries and those industries affected by the depreciation of foreign currency, also assisting the revival of hop-growing.

The Bill will also put into effect the temporary regulation of the exportation of certain goods, the authorisation of the grant of credits, and the undertaking of insurances for the re-establishment of overseas trade.

ISSUE OF NICKEL COINAGE RECOMMENDED.

LONDON, November 16th.

The Council of the London Chamber of Commerce has decided to recommend that, in view of the price of silver and the possible disappearance of the silver issue, the Government prepare an issue of nickel coinage of denominations under five shillings, sufficient to provide for the needs of the country; and also to endeavour to find substitutes for the use of silver in India and other silver-using Dependencies.

THE BRITISH NAVY.

ADMIRAL JELLICOE'S RECOMMENDATIONS.

LONDON, November 18th.

In the House of Commons, replying to Mr. David Davies, Mr. Walter Long stated that the recommendations of Admiral Jellicoe would all need careful consideration, firstly, by the Governments to which they were primarily addressed, and, secondly, by the Imperial Government and the Admiralty which would be consulted by them.

There was no question at present of any immediate action being taken in consequence of a report which would involve increased charges on the Imperial exchequer.

LONDON, November 18th.

A British Mission is proceeding to Rostoff in South Russia vid Constantinople under Mr. H. S. Mackinder, M.P. The Government attaches the greatest importance to the immediate economic development of South Russia with a view to placing British trade on a sound basis in that rich area with its forty millions of people freed from Bolshevism.

AMERICA'S DETENTION OF GERMAN STEAMERS.

A CURIOUS POSITION.

LONDON, November 18th.

The eight German vessels held up by America are the Imperator, Kaiserin Augusa Victoria, Prinz Friederick Wilhelm, Cleveland (renamed Mobile) Zeppelin, Cap Finisterre, Pretoria and Graf Waldersee.

These steamers were lent to America last February for the transportation of troops, which was completed on July 30th.

British crews, early in September, were sent to New York to fetch the steamers but, at the eleventh hour, the Shipping Board forbade their departure on the ground that the vessels had been assigned to the United States, although the State Department is ready to accede to Britain's demands.

DIAMOND JUBILEE OF UNION CHURCH.

ANOTHER SPECIAL SERVICE.

Another special service was held at the Union Church, yesterday, in further celebration of the Diamond Jubilee. There was a crowded congregation present. Hymns suitable to the occasion were sung and Dr. G. H. Bonfield, who conducted the service took as his text St. Matthew ch. 13 v. 3. ("Behold a sower went forth to sow"). In the course of his sermon, the lecturer said:—"How far the Christian message has failed is a question that is now agitating the religious world as it has not been moved for a generation. Some frankly say that it has failed. It did not, they affirm, prevent Christian nations from fighting in the most awful war that has ever been waged, and it has only produced an illusive peace and created more confusion. Others complain that so far from creating a new heaven and a new earth, it has not improved social conditions at all; that divisions are wider and more bitter than ever; that lawlessness and violence have taken the place of orderly development; that Governments have lost their authority and that Democracy has gone mad.

"So far from Christianity controlling and bettering men, it has lost what influence it ever had. Instead of becoming more humble and penitent through the upheavals and catastrophes of the past few years, we have become more self-willed, more insistent on "rights," less sensible of responsibility, and less disposed to accept any guidance from religion or any strength from its consolations.

"One might multiply criticism of this kind and the saddest thing is that much of it is justified. The Church, in delivering its message, has made claims for which it had little warrant and has often forgotten to emphasise those aspects of it which most closely touch our common and ever-changing life. Sometimes we have spoken of Christianity as though it were to put everything right, as though it were to adjust all differences, redress all social wrongs, straighten out every political and economic difficulty, sweeten all life and make the world a happy place and comfortable for everybody.

"Now does the New Testament make any such claims? Do such statements represent the teaching of Christ? I think not. It is certain that none of the wrongs that men inflict on each other are according to the will of God; and it is equally certain that a better social order and a cleaner national life are in conformity with that will. But the conditions of this transformation are imperfectly understood if we suppose that reforms are to be forced upon us, or brought about in any arbitrary or mechanical way. The doing of God's will is a personal matter, and no other person can yield the submission and render the obedience that ought to come from me.

"This parable, it seems to me, is most instructive for it tells us that the fruitfulness of the 'Word' or 'The Seed of the Kingdom,' even when the Son of Man himself is the sower, depends in a measure, upon the soil. It does not grow unless there is a proper reception and nourishment in the hearts of men. There is nothing inevitable about it. If the ground is good, the seed of the Kingdom takes root and flourishes; if it be bad, it withers and dies.

"'Behold a sower went forth to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way-side and the birds devoured them and some fell upon rocky places; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away. And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up with it and choked it. And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bore fruit a hundred fold.' The frankness of Christ leaves no room for misunderstanding. He is the sower, and though He is infinitely solicitous that the blessings of the Kingdom of God shall abound everywhere, He does not coerce men or force an unwilling obedience from them. He invites, He urges, and He warns, but our freedom is left untouched. 'Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest,' is His gracious appeal to the whole world, but you and I may disregard His call and never know this rest at all. This is the tragedy of the Gospel; it reveals not an impotent God, but a God who suffers with us and for us, and who has chosen to limit Himself, and allow His creatures to disregard His will. Even the Divine love could go no farther.

"Four classes of hearers are brought before us in this parable. Firstly, there are the way-side hearers. Those in whose lives are the characteristics of the beaten path. These are the men and women whose hearts and minds are crusted over; they are hard and unreceptive. They do not take in the Word because of any natural incapacity, but because of the trampled surface. Too many feet are passing to and from in their lives; too many other interests. They have no time for serious thought. There is no longing for higher things, desire for a better, and a holier life; no cultivation of the generosity and charity, the self-sacrifice and humility which are the marks of the Spirit.

Now what can be done with such hearers? The good seed falls on ground that is unresponsive and unyielding and there it lies until the birds devour it. How can the Church, how can any ministry influence such lives? They hear without understanding. There is no quickening of conscience, no appreciation of either promise or warning. The great truths with which the Bible is concerned leave them unmoved; and, worst of all, there is no response to the appeals of Divine love. To it all, they are indifferent. To it all, they present the closed heart of a barren life.

"The peril of the hardened heart is very real. We do not think and we soon become absorbed in other things. Loss of interest grows to indifference and indifference grows to opposition. Of course, the Church is blamed. Some other presentation of the Gospel ought to have been made; something else should have been done. If we are honest with ourselves we should know that it would have been just the same. The facts of sin and judgment, of infinite love and mercy, of faith or indifference do not change. The change must be within. Instead of the softened heart which feels its need of God and responds with gladness, there is the unreceptive mind and the indifferent will.

"'Behold a sower went forth to sow; and when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way-side and the birds came and devoured them up.'"

THE ASSYRIAN MASSACRES.

LECTURE BY DR. M. G. DANIEL.

At the Wesleyan Church, yesterday evening, in the presence of a fairly large congregation, Dr. M. G. Daniel, Archdeacon of the Assyrian Church, who is on a visit to the Colony, gave an interesting lecture on the recent Assyrian massacres in Turkey. Dressed up in his national costume, the lecturer related a pathetic story of how the Turks butchered men, women and children. He said that whenever he saw British soldiers, he thought it was they who had saved his country and liberated it from bondage. The Assyrians had been slaves to the Turks for over 1,300 years, and no one knew about it. The Turks did as they liked with the Armenians, Syrians, Greeks, Persians and his own race, in fact everyone who professed a faith other than Mohammedanism was callously and brutally murdered. Over 4 million Christians were murdered in Turkey during the war, including 80 per cent. of the Assyrians. The Germans claimed to be the most intellectual and civilized people in the world, yet their officers led the Turks in butchery. Dr. Daniel spoke of the lawlessness in Turkey and Persia, the absence of courts, of even justice itself. The strong man, the robber, the brigand was the power behind the throne and he took to himself the right of ruling over thousands through payment of a sum of money to the Sultan. General von Sanders was the first to issue a leaflet commanding the Turks to murder all Christians. The Assyrians, after untold sufferings in Turkey, managed to escape into Russia through the Caucasus, where a worse fate befell them. The Turks had taken away everything from them, and the Bolshevists forced them to fight. Dr. Daniel himself lost 63 relatives, and his wife and child were separated from him for two years. They only met by accident in Tokio. Now that Mesopotamia was under British rule, the Assyrians were going to settle there and he appealed for assistance for them.

TRADE REPORT.

EXPORTS.

PEANUTS.—The Japanese are reported to have made very large purchases in the North and, as a consequence, prices here have hardened somewhat.

TIN continues to be entirely neglected, and business could doubtless be done under last week's prices.

OILS GENERALLY.—Some business has been done in No. 1 Peanut oil for shipment to America, but in tea oil and wood oil there has hardly been anything doing lately. The present quotations are:—

Peanut oil No. 1 at $25 per picul f.o.b.
Peanut oil No. 2 at $27 per picul f.o.b.
Wood oil at $23.50 per picul f.o.b.
Tea oil at $26 per picul f.o.b.

TOBACCO LEAF.—Nam Hung No. 1 is quoted at about $70 per picul, but, owing probably to high exchange, no fresh business has been put through lately.

SAIGON CASSIA continues neglected at last quotation.

CASSIA OIL is quiet. Quotations:—80/85 per cent. at $240, 75/80 per cent. at $230.

ANISEED OIL 15deg. At $146 there is small business.

LARD.—Several enquiries have come to hand from Northern European ports, but, owing to lack of freight room and high exchange, no business has resulted. Our market is slightly easier, and "new tins" can now be had at $36.50 and "old tins" at $35.75 per picul.

RICE.—The new Siam crop will probably be under 75 per cent. of the normal and the export of the higher grades is prohibited. Licenses will be granted for the broken qualities only, with the exception of A1.

Reports from Saigon re their new crop prospects continue to be highly satisfactory, but, in view of heavy purchases for January February March shipment to Europe, the market there has again advanced, and, to make matters worse, the Saigon Hongkong exchange, which was until recently quoted at about 10 per cent., has now jumped to about 25 per cent.

Some of our dealers are reported to have made large forward contracts before the rise in prices and exchange, and they are now doubtless regretting having entered into such speculative commitments.

Our market closes firm as under for old crop rice:—

Siam garden rice, $16.50 (nominal).
Siam straight, $15.75 (nominal).
Siam usual rice, $14.75 for good cargo).
Saigon long rice, $14.50 (for good cargo).
Saigon round rice, at $14.25 (for good cargo).

INTERFERING WITH A CONSTABLE.

IN THE EXECUTION OF HIS DUTIES.

At the Magistracy, on Saturday, a Chinese was charged with assaulting a constable while the latter was about to arrest a person who had formerly been deported from the Colony.

A Chinese constable stated that he was sent to West Point by the Yaumati Police to make enquiries concerning a returned deportee. At Connaught Road West he saw a party of men approaching him, one of whom was the deportee. The deportee evidently recognised witness and pulled his hat over his face when passing witness. Witness went up to the deportee and attempted to arrest him. Defendant, who was with the party, thereupon assaulted witness and, in the confusion which followed, the deportee managed to escape. All the other men of the party scattered in different directions. Witness chased defendant through two streets and then arrested him. On the way to the Central Police station, defendant told witness that he wished to see his mother, a seamstress at the Hongkong Hotel. Witness took him to the place and defendant asked his mother to give witness some money and have him set free.

Defendant stated that the man whom the constable wanted to arrest was his brother. Defendant remonstrated with the constable, who was an old friend of his, about not showing more consideration to his brother. He knew the constable before he joined the force and had some disagreement with him once. The constable, now that he had authority, was trying to take his revenge. The constable insulted defendant and called him a suspicious character.

Defendant, who had a previous conviction against him, was sentenced to three months' hard labour.

ARMS IN CUBICLES

"IN LEAGUE WITH SMUGGLERS."

Three Chinese, a man and two women, were charged at the Magistracy, on Saturday, with being in unlawful possession of four revolvers and 900 rounds of ammunition.

The Hon. Mr. E. D. C. Wolfe, C.S.P. prosecuted and Mr. E. B. Potter appeared for the defence.

Mr. Wolfe stated that the ammunition and revolvers were discovered in a house in Hollywood Road. Three revolvers were found in a cubicle in which the man was living and the other revolver and 900 rounds of ammunition were found in another cubicle owned by the two women. The revolvers and ammunition were new, and although he was not prepared to state that the defendants were in league with the robbers, it was obvious that they were in league with smugglers. The Police looked upon it as a serious case. Mr. Potter, he understood, wished for a remand. If that were so, he would ask for a bail of about of $2,000 for the man and $1,000 each for the two women.

Mr. Potter stated that his clients were unable to furnish bail.

Mr. Hutchison remanded the case till Wednesday.

HEADACHES.

The Cause and Remedy.

Sick and Nervous Headaches are but the symptoms of other ailments to which they are merely sympathetic, such as Indigestion, Biliousness, Constipation, or some other irregularity of the system. Many women habitually suffer from Headaches, which make life a daily purgatory. Indeed this complaint may be regarded as peculiarly an affection of the feminine sex, an ailment common to all women from girlhood to old age. If men suffered from Headaches as women do, business would be at a standstill, but the truth is that a woman's headache is generally due to womanly causes. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills get at the cause. They aid the digestion and assimilation of food, cleanse the system and purify the blood, and are a positive cure for sick headache, biliousness and stomach disorders.

They are a perfect Blood Purifier and a positive and permanent cure for Biliousness, Indigestion, Constipation, Headaches, Sallow Complexion, Liver and Kidney Troubles, Piles, Blotches, and all Female Ailments.
